

St. Lucie County Fire District News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 19, 2012

St. Lucie County Fire District Honors Two Retirees

St. Lucie County, FL – The St. Lucie County Fire District honored Lt. Ralph Morrison and Firefighter/Engineer Shedric Jones, both recent retirees from the Fire District, at the January Fire Board Meeting.

Lt. Morrison served for 30 years at the Fire District, including in the Training Division. He was the Infection Control officer for many years. Most recently he was a Field Training Officer. He retired earlier this month. FF/Eng Jones served for 26 years, including at Station #15 in downtown Ft. Pierce and Station #9 on North Hutchinson Island. He retired in December.

The two men were presented plaques by Fire Chief Ron Parrish during the Fire Board Meeting.

Lt. Ralph Morrison, left, and Firefighter/Engineer Shedric Jones, right, recently retired from the St. Lucie County Fire District. Both were presented a plaque by Fire Chief Ron Parrish, center, at the January Fire Board Meeting.